Virtual Journey to Guatemala: Migration

Join CEDEPCA for the next Virtual Journey to Guatemala as we explore "Migration in our Current Context." Be transformed by this virtual travel opportunity designed for an English-speaking audience. Through music, travel footage, compelling stories, and breakout room discussions, we will dive into the root causes of migration in Central America made even more complex by our current global context.

Featured speakers will be Lizbeth Gramajo Bauer, Migration Researcher at Rafael Landívar University in Guatemala City, and Mark Adams and Miriam Maldonado, PC(USA) Mission Co-Workers ministering at the border in Douglas, Arizona and Agua Prieta, Sonora.

When: Wednesday, August 25, at 4:30 PM

Register in advance at bit.ly/HPPCmigration. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

Shoe Drive

Mission Community Outreach Center is having it’s 11th Annual Back-to-School Shoe Drive, through August 15. New athletic shoes and socks for children entering grades K-8 can be dropped off in the blue barrel outside the sanctuary.
